

Concept

Shared Voices: Time & Environment brings together 3 contemporary artists that explore concepts of light, space, color and perception. The influence artists to consider dynamicism, existence and dimensionality. Collectively, their work has influenced art, design and architecture. The event involves lectures and installations done by each artist and promotes students to consider ways in which these artists can inspire them.